MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 30 1866.

THE RIGHTS OF POLYGAMISTS.

It has been recently decided in the United States District Court, of the First Judicial District of Utah, Judge Drake presiding, that a polygamist is not entitled to any of the rights and privileges of American citizenship, and naturalization papers are refused to men who persistently violate the established laws of the country. Judge Drake in his decision remarked that the practice of Polygamy prior to the passage of the anti-Polygamy act of Congress was just as much a crime against humanity, civilization and the Christianity of the age as it is now—that no man could in his judgment make a good citizen who practiced Polygamy and thus aided in de[illegible] [illegible] would not issue papers to any man who practiced or believed in the system.

For years the Mormon Church leaders have employed every means in their power to force the men and women of the church into Polygamy. As yet they have not succeeded in obtaining more than one-third of the male marrying population to embrace it, while every woman of any feeling and refinement instinctively shrinks from the foul thing. It is asserted by many who claim to know, that not more than one-fourth of the men are in Polygamy.

These men in Polygamy persistently defy the law of the country in which they live, and in doing so naturally deprive themselves of the rights of American citizenship. No man who practices Polygamy should be allowed to enjoy any of the rights of citizenship, for that man is aiding in the debasement of humanity. We have been informed that during the argument before Judge McCurdy, in the case of Mrs. Brassfield claiming the custody of her children that the Deputy Territorial Attorney General, in alluding to the rights of Polygamists, said in substance, he would not be disfranchised—if the Government attempted to disfranchise him because he was a Polygamist, it would cost the blood of more than one man to do it.—The man who made this bombastic threat claimed to appear before the Court representing the people of Utah. We do not believe he represented the sentiment of the people of Utah in that utterance. Now we apprehend if the United States Courts refuse to make citizens of Polygamists and the Government should determine to disfranchise men who are already in Polygamy, such threats will not deter the execution of the purpose. If Polygamists desire to make an issue in blood with the Government, the responsibility of that act will be with them, not with the Government, and if they ever make that issue in blood, they will be swept from the face of the earth so rapidly that they will not know what hurt them. The day for boasts and threats against the Government has passed. A handful of Polygamists in one small territory of the American Government cannot successfully defy this nation. Sooner or later they and others who degrade humanity will run to the end of their career. They may secure the blood of more than one man—but we tell them that the blood of every man they shed in the interest of Polygamy is certain to tell against them in fearful retributive justice when the day of settlement arrives. We again advise all Mormons who are not in Polygamy not only to abstain from the crime, but to discountenance it by every act and word of their lives. Within less than five years they will thank us for the advice and acknowledge what we now claim—that we are the best friends they have to-day in this Territory.

ITEMS FROM NEW MEXICO.—The Santa Fe [illegible] publishes the following news:

Fort Garland, C. T., has been transferred to the military District of New Mexico.

Indian Agent Salazar sent his resignation of his commission as Agent for New Mexico to the President of the United States [illegible].

The funeral of the late Lieut. Colonel [illegible] U. S. A., was largely attended on the [illegible] of April.

The Colonel has been serving in the Pay Department of the Army in New Mexico for several years previous to his decease and enjoyed a good reputation as an officer.

His remains were deposited in the Masonic cemetery with Masonic honors.

The murder that was committed by the Indians upon the three expressmen at Las Romanzas was one of the most atrocious acts that the savages have ever been guilty of in this country.

The locality in which the barbarity was committed seems to be a favorite one with them for doing such things. It was near this spot where Mr. Ben Stevens had his celebrated fight with them last fall.

The following account of an expedition which [illegible] country [illegible] starting in January, from what place of rendezvous is not stated, is by Vector Valdez, who was with the party:

"On the 12th of February the party first came upon the object of their search—the Navajos—at a place 'La Puerta de las Lemitas' in the Navajo country, and beyond the Canon Bonito. For several days they had brushes with the Indians and came off victorious in killing seventy and taking [illegible] prisoners. There were two Mexicans and one Ute killed in the fights.

A great many of the [illegible] starvation."

GENERAL NEWS.

Detroit, April 26.

As the steamer Windsor [illegible] freight at the Detroit & Milwaukee [illegible] this morning [illegible] the [illegible] and steamer [illegible] persons were on board the boat, two of whom are known to have been drowned. The steamer floated down the stream and was totally consumed. The fire destroyed both passenger and freight depots, a loaded freight train, and all the offices of the company. Loss estimated at half a million. It is feared many lives have been lost.

New Orleans, April 26.

Conference elected the following ministers bishops in the Methodist Episcopal Church South: Dr. N. M. Wightman, of Greensboro, Ga.; Rev. E. M. Marvin, of Maryland; [illegible] of Richmond, Va.; and Dr. P. M. Monroe, of Montgomery, Ala. W. H. Bedford, of Louisville, was elected book agent, and Dr. S. O. Sumner, book editor. Dr. J. B. McFerrin was elected Secretary. The foreign missionary board is located at Baltimore. The ordination of bishops will take place on Sunday.—The Conference will probably adjourn Tuesday next.

Nashville, April 26.

Cave Johnson made an elaborate speech, arguing his right to be admitted to a seat in the State Senate, his participation in the rebellion to the contrary notwithstanding, over which the Senate adopted a resolution by 19 yeas to 7 nays, excluding him on account of treason.

New York, April 26.

The Times' special says: The New York Congressional delegation met on Wednesday evening, and their action in regard to reconstruction has been the subject of much surprise among extreme men, who counted on a majority of that delegation for universal suffrage. The following is in substance the plan, which though not formally adopted, received greatest favor: 1st. A Constitutional amendment basing representation upon population, and providing that wherever any State denies suffrage to any class of citizens for any reason except participation in the rebellion, such disfranchised class shall be deducted from the basis of representation. 2d. A Constitutional amendment prohibiting the payment of the rebel debt or compensation for slaves. 3d. That whenever these amendments be fully ratified and incorporated into the Federal Constitution, each of the lately rebellious States shall be entitled to the admission of its representatives on their taking the required oath. 4th. The following classes to be forever debarred from holding office, viz:—The President, Vice President, Cabinet, members of Congress, Judges, foreign agents, &c. of the Confederacy; all persons who left positions under the United States to join the rebellion; all officers in the army above the rank of Colonel and in the navy above the rank of Master; and all persons guilty of treating prisoners of war inhumanly.

This plan of action will be submitted to the Constitutional Committee. The question of negro suffrage, immediate or remote, was received with very little favor.

Washington, April 27.

The District of Columbia Suffrage Bill will be taken up in the Senate next week.

It is being asserted that if the Colorado Bill passes the House, the President will veto it.

Among the nominations sent to the Senate yesterday were: D. L. Gregg, receiver public money, Carson City, Nevada; John A. Clarke, Surveyor General New Mexico; and the following for Receivers of Land Offices, viz: Royal Buck, Nebraska City, Chas. K. Dorsey, Brownsville, Nebraska, and Wm. T. Sweeney, Omaha.

New York, April 27.

The Board of Health will occupy the battery barracks immediately. There have been three deaths from cholera, but no more new cases since the last report.

The Fenian war has been renewed in this city by the returning veterans of the Passamaquoddy, who bandy epithets more freely than ever, and charge each other with [illegible] the O'Mahoney expedition, there is a new bolt from the old headquarters, and Roberts' faction enjoy the fresh troubles of Union Square. Killian keeps quiet so far, but his Lieutenant in command is very bitter on O'Mahoney, and tells the Fenians to stop sending money to the imbecile chief. It appears that when the Fenians were enroute home by the steamers, [illegible] belligerent ones drew pistols and ordered the Captain to return to the seat of war. They were put ashore on an island, on the coast of Maine.

Washington, April 27.

The Senate refused to concur in the House amendments of the Cuba telegraph bill, one amendment being that the Company should not charge exceeding three dollars and fifty cents for ten words. Conness said the price was altogether too high and hoped the Senate would not concur.

There seems to be no doubt that Mrs. Jeff. Davis, now enroute hither from Montreal, has obtained permission to visit her husband in Ft. Monroe.

THE TROUBLES IN UTAH.

A system of secret murder is evidently one of the "Church" institutions in Utah, as is distinctly proved by the recent case of Brassfield, who married, with all the legal forms, a Mormon woman—a circumstance which seems in itself to have given great offence to the Saints. Brassfield had the misfortune to fall in love with the Polygamic wife of one of the faithful, withdrew her from her slavery and gave her the benefit of a genuine Christian wedding. The majesty of Mormon law could be vindicated only by the shedding of blood. Bearing in mind that outrages like this are of constant occurrence within the Territories of the United States, almost under the eyes of the properly appointed officials, and not upon the banks of the Bosporus, where the fugitive slave and the interloper are both subjected to the bowstring, we are led to ask if we have really a Government?—Sacramento Bee.

The Holladay Overland Mail and Express Company have passengers booked and seats paid for in their coaches for fifty days ahead. The Company is doing a [illegible] also carrying large amounts of Express goods.—[illegible] Champion.

ON THE RAMPAGE.—Brigham Young has lashed himself into a high state of excitement in regard to the sanctity and inviolability of his domestic institutions. He has commenced throwing [illegible] into the camp of [illegible] Gentiles, whom he [illegible] make themselves [illegible] together [illegible] the "scalawag" [illegible] ham says he [illegible] and intimates [illegible] these Gentile reprobates prowling around his sheepfold, he will lay them as cold as a wedge. [illegible] cial organ [illegible] nificant language [illegible] pose a man should [illegible] decoy away from [illegible] wife of yours, what would you do under the circumstances? I would lay judgment to the line, and righteousness to the plummet, so help me God. I say that for myself, and not for another." The Prophet then proceeds in a strain which makes it pretty clear that by "laying judgment to the line and righteousness to the plummet," he means "blowing the top of a man's head off." He winds up with the following remark, which seems to indicate (so far as we can make it out) that he considers himself, in some sort, one of the persons in the Trinity: "I am for defending the truth of God and the ordinances of His house. I have enlisted to be His servant, and a co-worker and fellow-laborer with him, and with my elder brother, Jesus Christ." There can be no mistake about this, inasmuch as we copy it verbatim from the official report in Brigham's organ, the Semi-Weekly Salt Lake Telegraph.—Alta Letter.

ORDERED TO CAMP DOUGLAS.—The following order from the Head-quarters of the Army is published for the information of our readers:

HEAD-QUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
Washington, March 10th, 1866.
GENERAL ORDERS, No. 14

Commanders of military Departments will, as rapidly as possible, cause all rented public buildings to be vacated, and the troops and officers remaining in their commands, to be collected in regular military Posts, the property of the United States.

By order of LIEUT. GEN. GRANT.
E D TOWNSEND,
Assistant Adjutant General.

In compliance with the above, the commanding officer of this District has ordered the Post at Salt Lake City discontinued and the troops comprising the garrison to march on the 1st proximo to Camp Douglas, for duty. To day all leases for buildings occupied by the officers and enlisted men constituting the garrison are understood to terminate. Should any body of troops be quartered in this city at any time in the future and conduct themselves with as gentlemanly and soldierly bearing as the officers and men about to leave us, our citizens will have no cause of complaint.

A WOLF IN SHEEPSKIN.—During the recent term of the United States Court of the First Judicial District of Utah, held at Provo City, a Mormon applied to the Court for his naturalization papers. He was minus an eye and a leg. The presiding Judge questioned him in reference to the anti-polygamy act of Congress, and when the applicant stated that he had never entertained a plurality of wives the Judge passed his papers over to the Clerk of the Court for completion. At this stage of the proceedings, applicant for citizenship as he seated himself, remarked in an undertone, that "he wished he had entered into polygamy." The Judge partially overhearing him, asked what he said when the applicant repeated the assertion, whereupon the Judge revoked his order just made, granting him his naturalization papers. Applicant then solicited the privilege of explaining his remark, which was granted, when he stated in substance that he was blind in one eye and had only one leg and that was the reason he was sorry he had not entered into polygamy. The Judge however, declined to accept the explanation and the man departed without his papers. We have often before this heard of men going into polygamy in order to have more women to help provide for them, but this case comes nearer showing the motives of some Mormons in embracing the system than any that has come under our observation for a long time. Doubtless if our Mormon friend with only one leg and one eye, could secure three or four women in polygamy he would be quite comfortably provided for.

TRAGEDY IN S. L. CITY.—On the 27th ult., Judge McCurdy, of the Supreme Court of Utah, married Squire Newton Brassfield to Mary, second wife in Polygamy of A. N. Hill, Mormon missionary now in Europe. For this, after some very strange judicial or rather police proceedings, in reference to Mary's children, Brassfield was waylaid while walking home in company with the U. S. Marshal, and shot to death. There is great excitement over it among the Gentiles of Utah, and well there may be. Things in Salt Lake City are as bad as in that ancient Gibeah of the Benjamites, which was destroyed in the time of the Judges, because it was a stench to upright manhood, even in its semi-savage state.—Blackhawk (Col.) Mining Journal.

A STRANGER coming here naturally expects to see on every street, and in fact everywhere, evidences of Polygamy, but let me assure you that it is not to be seen on the surface of affairs. You do not realize that you are in the city of many wives and proportionately few husbands. In regard to Polygamy, the sentiment of their young women—especially the better class is against it. A great social revolution has commenced here, and will continue until this iniquity is rooted out.—Correspondent of the Napa (Cal.) Reporter.

THE Democrats of Oregon are running a State ticket. A friend at our elbow remarks that with the exception of Kelly for Congress, the ticket is a miserable one, being all "secesh" excepting that gentleman. The chances are the ticket will be defeated.

AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.—There are serious indications [illegible] between these [illegible] powers. The London Times [illegible] proceedings [illegible] between [illegible] almost identical with those [illegible] preceded every [illegible] nations.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

See advertising column.

... required. Read Lodge notice.

It is understood that Judge Titus is on his way back to Salt Lake City.

General Connor is expected here about the 20th of next month.

Y. M. L. A. will give a May party at the Independence Hall Tuesday evening, May 1st, '66. Dancing to commence at 7 o'clock. Music by Tay's Band.

Everybody is rushing to Montana. Next spring we will have as great a stampede for Utah. The silver is here. We know it, because we have seen the assays and the ledges.

Arrested.—The two Nevada soldiers who disgraced themselves and their uniforms last Friday night in this city, by their riotous conduct and reckless discharge of fire arms, were promptly arrested on Saturday morning and confined in the Camp Douglas Guard House to await trial before a General Court Martial.

To Actors and Actresses.—Your attention is directed to the card of Mr. Johnston, manager and proprietor of the Peoples' Theatre, Virginia City, Montana. His new Theatre is as large and handsome as the Academy of Music of this city. Virginia City is a splendid place for a troupe to "star" it—to the tune of two dollars a ticket—in dust. Write to him.

It is rumored that the Mormon Chief lately received an addition to his ordnance, in the shape of a couple of cannon from California. We don't believe it; because, even the "report" of these brass field pieces is a source of terror to the hierarch, and the recoil sends some of them flying to Washington. Besides, what do these people know about heavy ordnance, whose favorite weapons are double barreled shot guns?

"Spring is Coming."—The decisions of Judge Drake, of the United States Court, denying the right of Probate Courts to issue naturalization papers and refusing American citizenship to polygamists (see Saturday's issue of the Vedette,) have excited much comment and caused some frothy words from the pack of law defying polygamists of Utah. We have but one consolation to extend to them. It is offered after the style of Police Judge Clinton of this city, in his remarks to a citizen who had resented an insult offered to his wife. "Spring is coming and if you do not like the laws of the United States you can leave." How does the boot appear when placed on the other foot?

More Montana Advertisements.—Everybody's attention is respectfully solicited to the cards, this morning, of John S. Rockfellow, Esq., the popular and prominent commission merchant, Virginia City; also to that of A. Lomax, Esq., the pioneer operator in the Livery and Stock line, whose corral and commission house have room for almost all the immigration on the road.

Helena has one more new advertisement in this day's issue; that of Messrs. Higgins & Hagadorn, Commission Merchants and wholesale dealers in groceries and general merchandise.

Read over all the new advertisements in our paper from Montana—that modern mart of enterprise that teems with thrift and life.

Miners, Attention!—We direct you to the advertisement of Bohm & Moliter, assayers and refiners, now doing business in this city. They will take one pound of your ore and give you the exact silver value of it, and all the silver contained in it, in a neat little button for fifteen dollars, guaranteeing the correctness of their work. You cannot have it done better or cheaper in New York city. Bring in your ore from Rush and Pahranagat—pay fifteen dollars, and know exactly what it is worth—Then give us the figures, and we will publish them gratis, so that everybody may know how rich Utah is in silver.—Our territory has untold millions of silver. Let us prove it.

Read Them.—We direct special attention to our twenty columns of live advertisements. They interest every person engaged in buying or selling. We are very proud of the appearance of the Vedette, and need we add very grateful to our many warm, earnest, friends, North, East and West who are aiding us in building up a journal in this city—destined to be the metropolis of the Great Basin. The advertising pressure upon our columns during the past month has been very great. We think, however, we can stand it and as soon as our new material arrives, measures will be employed to increase the size of our Daily and Weekly edition—and if gold continues to tumble, and prices of printing material decline correspondingly, we will be able to offer greater advantages to our readers and advertisers at reduced rates.
